"We wanted to build a custom home at The Sporting Club and that dream began to take concrete shape in March 2011. We choose Rob Vass as our builder. The team's experience and talents can be made clear by this fact: our home was finished and we moved in Christmas 2011. They were honest, responsive and extremely competent."

"Their success is based on setting and achieving exceptional standards both in the craft of building and the management of the building process."

"Their passion for excellence shows in the details"

"They did an excellent and professional job pricing the work, managing the subcontractors and adhering to our timeline."

"You have accomplished all that we wanted under budget and ahead of schedule. We could not have asked for more, and we could not be happier with the result."

"The team was totally dedicated to creating a signature product that would be an example of the finest quality construction and craftsmanship. Their passion for excellence shows in the details, which gives us pleasure in every room of the house."
