Membership at The Greenbrier Sporting Club offers you an array of benefits, not only at the exclusive, members-only level, but at The Greenbrier resort as well. This brochure summarizes offerings to our members who purchase real estate at The Greenbrier.

What is The Greenbrier Sporting Club?

The Greenbrier Sporting Club is the private equity club organized for the purpose of offering memberships to those that purchase real estate at The Greenbrier. ## What private amenities and activities are available to Greenbrier Sporting Club members?

Members of The Greenbrier Sporting Club enjoy an array of private club amenities. Two members-only lodges, The Lodge and The Summit, feature what some members have called “a resort within a resort,” with infinity pools, restaurants, lounges, a sport and fitness center, and other activities. For a complete list of exclusive benefits, please see our Benefits of Membership.

Do Greenbrier Sporting Club members have access to the resort facilities of The Greenbrier?

Yes, all of the resort amenities and activities are available to Sporting Club members. In fact, membership at The Greenbrier Sporting Club entitles you to generous discounts for many activities and at many of the retail shops, including no green fees on the resort courses, no court fees on both the indoor/outdoor tennis courts, and complimentary use of the indoor/outdoor pools and fitness center, to name a few.
